SAN DIEGO AWARDED INAUGURAL 2017 ANOC WORLD BEACH GAMES
ANOC General Assembly unanimously approves San Diego as 2017 host city

30 October 2015; Washington, D.C.: The ANOC General Assembly today unanimously approved the ANOC Executive Council's recommendation to select San Diego as the host city of the inaugural 2017 ANOC World Beach Games.

ANOC has received interest from many cities around the world to host the first ANOC World Beach Games. As part of its ongoing commitment to good governance, ANOC commissioned an extensive, independent assessment by Dow Jones Sport Intelligence (DJSI) into the event-related criteria for the ANOC World Beach Games. The ANOC Executive Council studied the comprehensive report before selecting San Diego during its meeting in Washington, D.C. on 28 October.

The General Assembly unanimously approved San Diego as the host city of the ANOC World Beach Games. Following the approval, the San Diego Exploratory Committee was invited to present its concept to the 204 NOCs in attendance.

The ANOC World Beach Games has been a key initiative of ANOC President Sheikh Ahmad Al-Fahad Al-Sabah and ANOC has received interest from many cities around the world to host the first ANOC World Beach Games. As part of its ongoing commitment to good governance, ANOC commissioned an extensive, independent assessment by Dow Jones Sport Intelligence (DJSI) into the event-related criteria for the ANOC World Beach Games. The ANOC Executive Council studied the comprehensive report before selecting San Diego during its meeting in Washington, D.C. on 28 October.

The ANOC World Beach Games has been a key initiative of ANOC President Sheikh Ahmad Al-Fahad Al-Sabah. The ANOC President wanted to create an event which will add real value and allow NOCs to engage with millions of young people around the world. To fulfill this vision, the ANOC World Beach Games will move beyond a traditional multi-sport event and incorporate many different cultural and entertainment events into its programme. More than 20 sports are expected on the sports programme, with some sports to be voted on by the NOCs as ANOC tries to ensure that all NOCs are actively involved in the development of the event.

Sheikh Ahmad Al-Fahad Al-Sabah said:

"This is an historic moment for ANOC and the NOC family. The ANOC World Beach Games has been a key priority for ANOC for nearly two years and today we took a step closer to making our vision a reality.

"We were very impressed by the plan that San Diego put forward. As part of the process that selected San Diego, a report from Dow Jones Sport Intelligence was commissioned. This enabled us to independently research and verify important event related criteria for the ANOC World Beach Games. We have worked closely with industry experts to devise an innovative concept which will blend sport, culture and entertainment and we believe that San Diego is the perfect city to deliver our vision. The ANOC World Beach Games is completely aligned with Olympic Agenda 2020 and will be something new and exciting that people have not seen before. It will help NOCs to reconnect with a whole generation of young people and deliver a positive and lasting legacy for the Olympic Movement.”

The Association of National Olympic Committees (ANOC) was established in June 1979 during the Constitutive General Assembly in San Juan, Puerto Rico. Over the last 36 years, the number of National Olympic Committees (NOCs) whose interests ANOC represents has risen to 206.

ANOC is administered from its headquarters in the Olympic Capital, Lausanne, where it has been based since June 2010. When the ANOC President Sheikh Ahmad Al-Fahad Al-Sabah was elected in April 2012 his stated objective was to reform, modernise and professionalise the organisation in order to better serve the needs of the world’s NOCs.

Under Sheikh Ahmad Al-Fahad Al-Sabah’s visionary leadership, ANOC has strived to protect and promote the collective interests of the NOCs by delivering an unprecedented level of assistance and support. ANOC also aims to build and strengthen the relationships between the NOCs and the Olympic Family for the benefit of the entire Olympic Movement.

SAN DIEGO WINS BID FOR THE INAUGURAL ANOC WORLD BEACH GAMES

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

WASHINGTON D.C. October, 30, 2015 - The Association of National Olympic Committees (ANOC) held its XX General Assembly in Washington, D.C where it unanimously approved San Diego as the host city for the 2017 ANOC World Beach Games.

The ANOC Executive Council selected San Diego from a pool of worthy cosmopolitan cities, including Dubai and Sochi.

The Games will feature 20-22 water, sand and urban games including surfing, beach soccer, beach handball, beach volleyball, triathlon, BMX and Skateboarding with athletes invited to participate, from all 206 member countries.

"We are truly excited at the opportunity to welcome the world to San Diego", said Vincent Mudd, Chairman of the San Diego Exploratory Foundation, the entity that oversaw the bid process. "Our city and region is the epicenter of beach and active lifestyle and ANOC World Beach Games will be a seamless fit within our community".

He added "We would like to thank ANOC for their confidence in bringing the first ever ANOC World Beach Games to our beautiful city. We will keep the promise of delivering a truly memorable experience. We would also like to thank the United States Olympic Committee (USOC) for their support and look forward to working together to ensure that the 2017 ANOC World Beach Games will be a successful and memorable endeavor."

The USOC played a key role by selecting the city of San Diego to represent the United States, during this bid process.

"We're thrilled that San Diego was selected to host the first ever ANOC World Beach Games," said USOC CEO Scott Blackmun. "San Diego has the natural capacity for hosting this exciting new event, and has a fantastic beach and sport culture. We look forward to working with ANOC and the city of San Diego in launching the ANOC World Beach Games."

The ANOC World Beach Games is envisioned to create a global multi-sport platform that organically connects with youth, in sports that they are passionate about.

The San Diego Exploratory Foundation is a 501c3 Non-Profit Organization comprised of civic leaders within the community that seek to elevate San Diego's position on the global platform.

AUDIT COMPLIANCE ACKNOWLEDGEMENT:

See Page 30 of SDTMD Guidelines and Application:

Contractors receiving $75,000 or more in federal, state, city and/or SDTMD funds shall have Financial Statement Audits prepared in accordance with GAAP and audited by an independent Certified Public Accountant, in accordance with Generally Accepted Auditing Standards [GAAS]. This audit report shall include the following statements:

a) A statement of expenditure of SDTMD funds by program, to be identified in the same expenditure classifications as contained in the final budget and compared with the budgeted amounts;

b) A statement of revenues and expenditures, and a balance sheet of all funds received by Corporation; and

c) A statement certifying compliance with all terms and conditions of the SDTMD’s contract with Contractor, and that all required reports and disclosures have been submitted, completed by an executive officer of Corporation.

Contractor shall provide the SDTMD a copy of the Financial Statement Audit within 150 calendar days of the end of Contractor’s last complete fiscal year.
